

MD110 BC12 I&M Basic Install 1

Course Description

1551-EN/LZU 102 1271 Uen

MD110 BC12 I&M Basic Install 1

Overview

The purpose of this course is, as a part of many courses, to prepare our sales and service organization for the handling of the release BC 12 of the MD110 as regards sales, configuration, implementation, maintenance, and support.

Product revision history

This is a new product.

Target audience

Ericsson Enterprise support organization. Support Staff (Support Engineers at Level 1).

Prerequisites

Basic Telephony and General PC knowledge

Main Objectives

The students shall – after the course – have the skills and knowledge, with the aid of the Implementation and Managing binder, to be able to install and modify the configuration of both HW and SW of a one node and 1-2 LIM system.

Contents

- System structure
 - Boards/BoardsPosition
 - Operating System
 - LIM/Node/Trunk
 - 1-2 LIM Structure
 - License
- Take Delivery/Assemble/Power Up the system
Take Delivery of a Pre-Built System
 - Assemble the system
 - Power Internal/ External/ Grounding
 - Cable (Internal Cabling)
 - Power Up the system
- How to communicate with the MD110
 - Winfiol
 - Alex
- Initiating Customer data and Extensions
 - Categories
 - Parameters
 - Number Analysis
 - DTS and ATS
 - Personal Number, Call-Back etc.
 - Traffic Call Discrimination
- Initiating an Operator
- Automatic Call Distribution
Dialled Number Information Service
- Public Trunks
 - Analog
 - ISDN
 - QSig
 - DID
- Dump and reload of the system
- Basic Maintenance commands
 - AL, BL, CN

- Case Install a 1LIM system

Learning Situation

This course is an instructor-led course with a mixture of theoretical sessions and practical exercises.

The course is developed for 8-12 students at the same time with a maximum of two persons per workstation (PC and PBX).

Duration

5 days.