

MD110 BC12 I&M Basic Install 2

Course Description

1551-EN/LZU 102 1272 Uen

MD110 BC12 I&M Basic Install 2

Overview

The purpose of this course is, as a part of many courses, to prepare our sales and service organization for the handling of the release BC 12 of the MD110 as regards sales, configuration, implementation, maintenance, and support.

Product revision history

This is a new product.

Target audience

Ericsson Enterprise support organization. Experienced Support Staff who has been attending the Basic Level 1 course.

Prerequisites

- Basic Telephony and General PC knowledge
- MD110 BC12 I&M Basic Install 1

Main Objectives

The students shall – after the course – have the skills and knowledge, with the aid of the Implementation and Managing binder, to be able to install and modify the configuration of both HW and SW, focusing on Mobility, IP-extension and Fault Location, of a one node system and 1-2 LIM system. The students will also have worked with the new SMS for DECT system that is introduced in MD110 BC11.

Contents

- Integrated mobility in MD110
- Integrated Voice Mail
- SMS
- IP-Telephony
- Fault location and Tracing
- Traffic recording for DECT
- Call Information Logging (CIL) on HDU
- Mobility Logging

Learning Situation

This course is an instructor-led course with a mixture of theoretical sessions and practical exercises.

The course is developed for 8-12 students at the same time with a maximum of two persons per workstation (PC and PBX).

Duration

5 days.