

D.N.A. 5.3 I&M Level 2

Course Description

1551-LZU 102 1353

D.N.A. 5.3 I&M Level 2

Overview

- This is a 2 days course, which covers in more depth of advanced features of D.N.A. 5.3. This 2 days course also includes a practical exercise on upgrading to D.N.A. 5.3.

Target audience

- Service technicians who are responsible of the installation and configuration of D.N.A.

Prerequisites

- Microsoft Windows 2000/2003 Server, Windows 2000/XP Professional
- Knowledge of MX-ONE Telephony System – Telephony Switch I&M Basic Install 1 course, LZU 102 1515
- Microsoft SQL Server 2000 or 7.0
- Completion of D.N.A. 5.3 Basic course, LZU 102 1351
- Completion of D.N.A. 5.3 I&M Level 1 course, LZU 102 1352

Main Objectives

The main learning objective is to teach the students how to upgrade to D.N.A. 5.3 by demonstrating through practical exercises.

Contents

- Upgrading to D.N.A. 5.3
- Pre-configured installation of SQL Server and D.N.A. 5.3

- Outlook & Lotus Notes Calendar Integration
- Trunk Manager
- Other advanced features (LDB Compression, Local Data Server, Registry Settings)
- Directory Link

Learning Situation

- This is an instructor-led training and majority part of the training contains practical hand-on exercises.

Duration

- 2 days

Add-on Courses

- N/A